Dedication

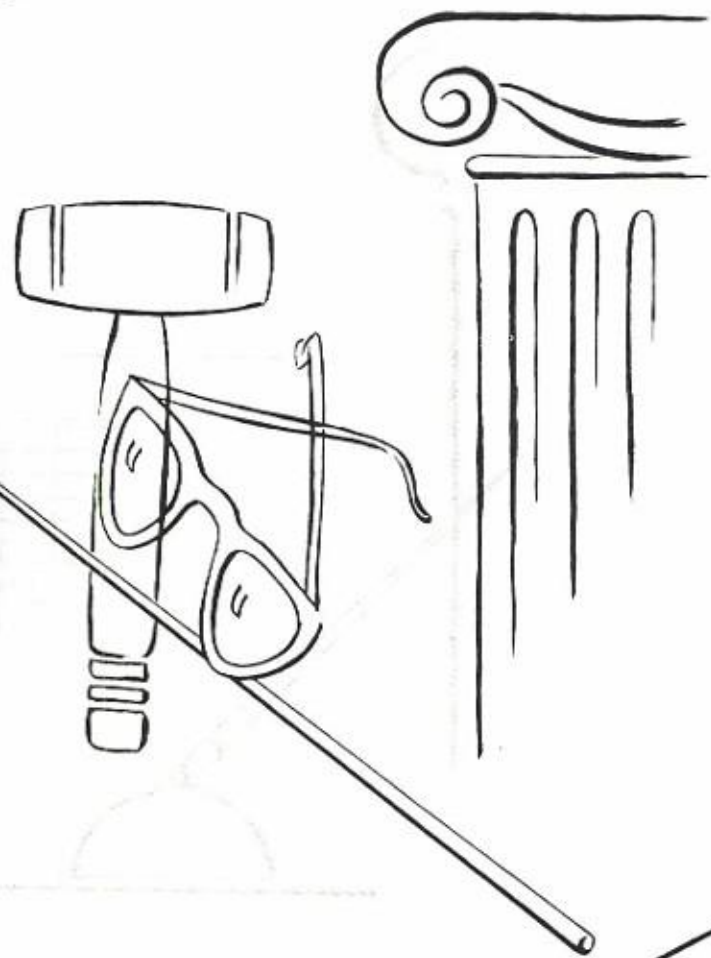

We, the class of 1958, salute one of the most deserving men we know, George Jones. As long as we can remember, George has been driving the school bus to and from school, to basketball and baseball games, and to any outside activity--always with the same pleasant smile. For his carefulness, kindness, and consideration, we shall always remember him as a real friend.

So with heartfelt appreciation we dedicate this HAWKEYE to you, George.

ADMINISTRATION

FACULTY

Superintendent Hodgkin writes recommendations for the Seniors.

Mrs. Wilson, our English teacher, prepares the Senior assignments.

Mrs. Ryg, our principal and commercial teacher, works hard as usual.

There is always plenty to keep the Home Economics teacher busy as Mrs. Jensen puts the finishing touches on a table cloth.

Compliments of SLATER AUTO

Mr. Jones (George), our bus driver, warming up the bus.

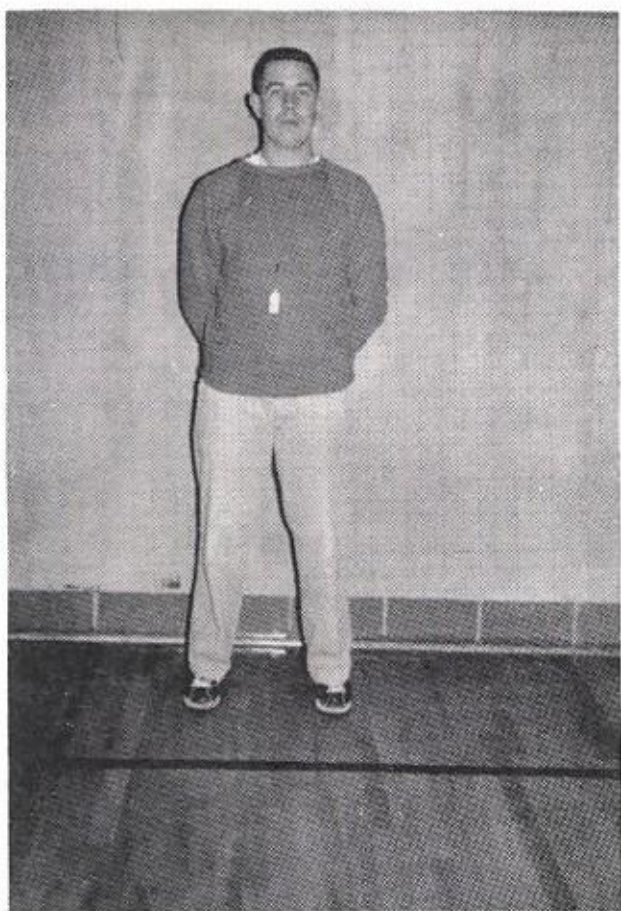

Mr. Anderson (Rudy), our custodian, sweeping the lunch room.

Mrs. Ihle, one of our cooks, prepares chili.

Mrs. Engen and Mrs. Gunderson, the other two cooks, frosting the cookies.

Mr. Blackman, our coach, ready for practice.

Mr. Burns, our band director, is deep in thought just before band concert time.

Mr. Sapp, our driver's training instructor, prepares for his class.

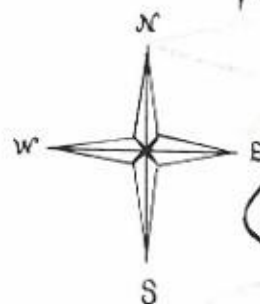

Mrs. Fausch, our vocal music instructor, waits for mixed chorus to begin.

CLASS HISTORY

In the first grade we started out with Miss Olson as our teacher. There were fourteen of us that first year. They were: Merrill Lester, Gwen Tweedt, Dean Floden, Garry Severson, Kenny Nelson, Richard Harmon, Dennis Soderstrum, Curtis Swanson, Patti Ihle, Paul Thornwall, Johnny Larson, Kay Hood, Wayne Metcalf, and Wayne Gutenfelder.

In the second grade we had Miss Erickson as our teacher. We lost Wayne Metcalf and Wayne Gutenfelder.

Our third year we lost Kay Hood. Our teacher was Miss Estrem.

Our fourth grade teacher was Mrs. Johanson. We lost Johnny Larson that year.

In the fifth grade Chriseeta Newell joined us. Our teacher was Mrs. Heyerdahl.

We lost Chriseeta Newell in the sixth grade. Mrs. Patterson was our teacher that year.

After a seemingly endless time we were in Junior High, seventh grade. That was the year we gained Anita Kittle and Ronald Thompson. Our teacher was Mrs. Hodgin.

Our teacher in the eighth grade was again Mrs. Hodgin. We gained Kenneth Twit from Kelley that year.

Dean Floden, Richard Harmon, Kenny Nelson, Patti Ihle, Merrill Lester, Paul Thornwall, Dennis Soderstrum, Curtis Swanson, Garry Severson, Ronald Thompson, Anita Kittle, Gwen Tweedt, and Kenneth Twit plus two new arrivals, Jim Young and Dorothy Jarnigan, made up our class as we went into high school. Our teachers were: Mrs. Ryg, Mr. Patterson, Mrs. Wilson, Mr. Hodgin, and Mr. Carlsten.

In our Sophomore year Dorothy Jarnigan and Anita Kittle moved away, leaving us only thirteen pupils. Mrs. Pollei, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Zimmack, Mr. Becker, Mr. Hodgin, and Mr. Carlsten made up the teaching staff that year.

Finally our junior year arrived, only two more years of school. Marcia Gibson brought our class population up to its present level of fourteen pupils. Our teachers that year were: Mrs. Ryg, Mr. Hodgin, Mr. Blackman, Mrs. Wilson, and Mrs. Miller.

In our last year of school our teachers were: Mrs. Ryg, Mr. Hodgin, Mr. Blackman, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Jensen, Mr. Burns, and Mrs. Fausch. Our graduating class consisted of: Dean Floden, Marcia Gibson, Richard Harmon, Merrill Lester, Patti Ihle, Dennis Soderstrum, Garry Severson, Curtis Swanson, Ronald Thompson, Paul Thornwall, Gwen Tweedt, Kenneth Twit, Kenny Nelson, and Jim Young.

CLASS PROPHECY

Dear Diary:

On my last trip to earth I visited Paul, who is not yet married and still going to Madrid. He is a successful business administrator for Better Homes and Gardens Magazine Co.

While there we discussed our old classmates and what they are doing now. I found out that Jim finally married Pat. He still has a dignified appearance since he is now a successful inventor. He invented the "Better Mouse Trap."

Professor Swanson, after securing his Ph. D., is now teaching kindergarten at Woodward. He is married to his fifth wife and has been quoted as having said "It's just one of the adjustments of life."

Dean finally went berserk and became a physical education teacher at Ballard. He is now Dean of sports at Ballard High and Junior College.

Richard is a professional bachelor and has his own fleet of soap boxes. He is making loads of money.

Kenny Nelson is driving one of Rich's soap boxes and is rated as the top soap box driver. He inherited Earp Oil Co. and is doing quite well in that too.

Marcia finally married Kenny, and they are raising a fine brood. Kenny is doing so well that he bought Marcia two new fur coats.

Patti married a Roland boy and started a beauty shop for dogs and cats. She is doing quite well.

Denny is now an aeronautical engineer and has made a new design in aircraft which gets him to Huxley in a shorter time from Seattle, Washington.

Kenny Twit can be seen every Monday and Saturday on T.V. playing the piano for the former Lawrence Welk Band. He also sings very deep bass on the program.

Garry is now running the beauty shop in Gus's electric shop. I understand he also gives haircuts.

Ron has become a very successful and sly business man. He burns money at the mint in Washington D. C.

Gwen married Ron and is now working in his clinic. She doesn't see him very often now that he is making millions.

Well I see by my supersonic watch that it's time for me to take another load of passengers to Mars in my new Turbo Hydraulic Lester Space Liner.

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1958, of Slater High School, being of sound mind and memory, bequeath our belongings to those who will accept and cherish them most. We hereby do declare this to be our last will and testament.

- I, Dean Floden, "will my ability to get into trouble" to Rowena Accola.
- I, Richard Harmon, will my "driving ability" to John Hodgin.
- I, Marcia Gibson, will my "quietness" to Patti Locker.
- I, Patti Ihle, will my "long lane" to Deanna Ihle.
- I, Merrill Lester, will my "red fenderskirts" to Jimmy Cerise.
- I, Kenny Nelson, will my "job at Earps" to Judie Floden.
- I, Ron Thompson, will my "white bucks" to Chuck Buche.
- I, Gary Severson, will my "orneriness in Chemistry class" to Colleen Tweedt.
- I, Curtis Swanson, will my "dating ability" to Larry Swim.
- I, Kenneth Twit, will my "Stomper boots" to Evelyn Vespestad.
- I, Paul Thornwall, will my "basketball suit" to Larry Tweedt.
- I, Dennis Soderstrum, will my "undertaking job" to Gilbert Anderson.
- I, Jim Young, will my "brief case and horn rim glasses" to Lynn Cerise.
- I, Gwen Tweedt, will my "ability to go steady for three years" to Gayla Richardson.

We, the seniors, will to Mr. Hodgin a physics class that will study.

We, the seniors, will to Mr. Blackman two more aerals for his car.

We, the seniors, will to Mrs. Ryg a new set of records for the typing class.

We, the seniors, will to Mrs. Wilson new seats for the English room.

We, the seniors, will to Mrs. Jenson some new supplies for the chemistry room.

We, the seniors, will to Mrs. Fausch a new piano.

We, the seniors, will to Mr. Burns some new music (popular).

To the juniors, we will a trip to Chicago.

To the sophomores, we will a new theme for the Junior-Senior Banquet.

To the freshmen, we will a new plan for welcoming the future freshmen.

To the future freshmen, we will a driver's training class.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

FIRST ROW, Left to Right: Wayne Metcalf, Ron *Thompson, Paul Thornwall, Dennis Soderstrum, Larry Larson, Coach Blackman. SECOND ROW: Jack Jones, Merrill Lester, Jim Young, Larry Swim, Jim Cerise. THIRD ROW: Chuck Buche, Manager; Denny Brown, Ron Harmon, Gilbert Anderson, Larry Tweedt, Bobby Brown.

RON THOMPSON: Senior, Forward; Ron was the rebounding and scoring leader for the Hawks all season. Shoots a nice left-handed jump shot. One of the better players in the conference.

DENNIS SODERSTRUM: Senior, Forward; Dennis was at his best on defense. A good rebounder for his size and always a hustler. A dependable player.

PAUL THORNWALL: Senior, Center; Paul started the schedule like a house-a-fire, but he was slowed up at mid-season by an ankle injury. Shoots a nice hook shot and was much more aggressive than last year.

MERRILL LESTER: Senior, Guard; Merrill was small but very quick and several times during the season he came in and gave the team a boost with his ball handling and aggressive style of play.

LARRY LARSON: Junior, Guard; Larry was always a good ball handler and during the second half of the season he became our most consistent scorer. Larry advanced the ball well all year and a press never seemed to bother him. He was one of the team leaders this season.

WAYNE METCALF: Junior, Guard; Wayne has the scoring touch and the desire but needs to boost his confidence in himself. Wayne possesses a good jump shot.

LARRY SWIM: Junior, Guard; Larry has a good scoring touch but has had little playing experience. He came on well the last half of the season and when he builds confidence could be an excellent point getter.

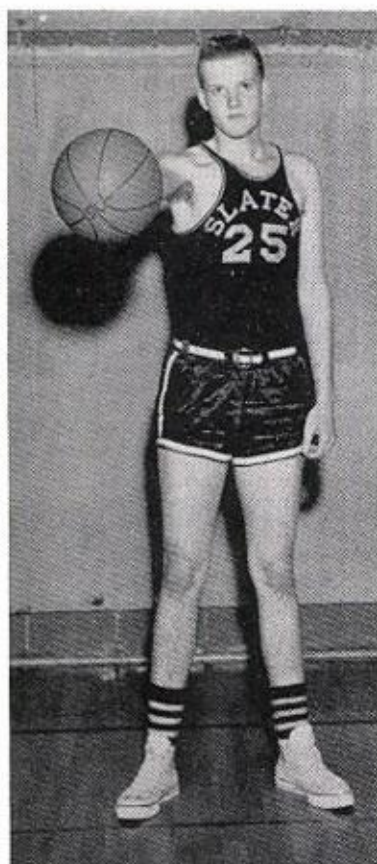

JIM CERISE: Junior, Guard; Jim is another boy with a good attitude who began to develop during the last half of the season. Jim could always be counted on to go in and get a bucket or two. A hustler at all times.

GILBERT ANDERSON: Sophomore, Center; Gilbert is a great jumper and always does a good rebounding job. He needs to develop his shooting and ball handling. He is a much improved player.

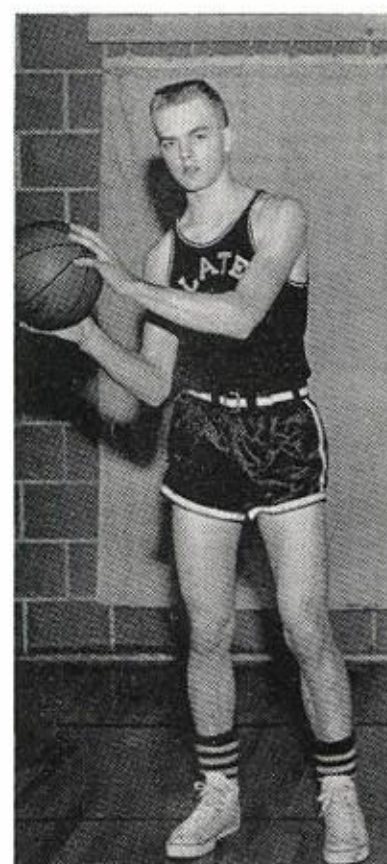

JACK JONES: Sophomore, Guard; Jack developed into a shooter this season and has a cool head in a ball game. He must overcome his size with aggressive play.

Other squad members were Denny Brown, Ron Harmon, Larry Tweedt and Bobby Brown. The loss of four seniors plus the new school at Ballard makes next season unknown.

GAYLA RICHARDSON. Junior, Forward; Gayla is a forward of great potential. She didn't score as many points as the other two regulars, but she is a hard forward to defend because she does everything well. One of the better players in the conference.

COLLEEN TWEDT: Junior, Forward; Colleen seemed to improve with each game and has developed into one of the best scorers in the conference. Colleen won the scoring title in the county tournament this season.

PATTI LOCKER: Junior, Guard; Patti developed into a top guard this season; she has a tremendous amount of desire to play and her aggressiveness was a big factor in our defense this season. I don't think Patti let down for a single game all season.

DARLA CARLSON: Sophomore, Forward; Darla was the most improved player over last season's squad. She was a very steady player for a sophomore and is a great outshooter. Darla has a lot of scoring potential.

BARBARA ROSS: Sophomore, Guard; Barbara is probably the most underrated player on the squad. She was our rebounder all season and the hardest guard on the squad to drive around. She turned in a dependable performance in every game.

EVELYN VESPESTAD: Freshman, Guard; Evelyn developed a great deal and performed on the first team all season as a freshman. Her specialty was intercepting passes which she did very well. A good rebounder, she should continue to develop.

SANDRA KLONGLAN: Sophomore, Forward; Sandra has a lot of drive and a good touch. When she gains more confidence she will score a great deal more. She played on the first six a great deal this season.

KAREN KLONGLAN: Freshman, Guard; Another freshman guard who shows a lot of potential. Karen is very aggressive and although she didn't start often, she played almost every game.

JANET LOCKER: Freshman, Forward; Janet shows a lot of promise and has good driving ability for a young player. Janet has speed and needs only to develop her shooting. Janet played some first string ball this season.

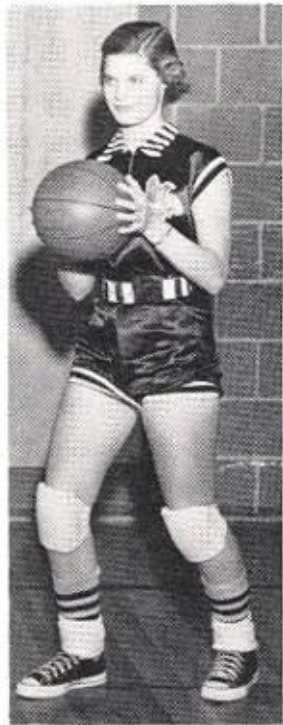

EILEEN THOMPSON: Sophomore, Guard; Eileen is one of the most improved players on the squad. She is exceptionally steady in games, considering her experience.

Other squad members included Susan Weeks, Judy Ryen, Sharon Dahl, Tonia Schaudt, and Deanna Ihle. All of the above mentioned players will return to the Ballard School next season.
